Ruah Woods is a non-profit ministry that helps men, women and children live their vocation to love, according to God’s plan, as informed by the Theology of the Body. As a result, disciples are identified, evangelizers are equipped and Catholic leaders developed to transform the culture to a civilization of life and love.

Ruah Woods Press is a branch that supports K-12 education for Theology of the Body Educator Formation and Training.

Ruah Woods Psychological Services is a branch that integrates the psychological science with the Catholic understanding of the human person.

D.J. Hueneman is from Ruah Woods Press located in Cincinnati, Ohio. D.J. is a former firefighter and paramedic turned author and speaker. He has spoken nationally and internationally on the topics of pornography, Theology of the Body, chastity, and the Catholic faith. D.J. currently serves as the Training and Development Coordinator and Lead Teacher Trainer at Ruah Woods Press in Cincinnati, OH where he lives with his wife and children.

Dr. Andrew Sodergren is at Ruah Woods Psychological Services in Cincinnati, OH. Dr. Sodergren is an active member of the Catholic Psychotherapy Association and has given professional presentations on the integration of psychology and the Catholic faith. He teaches a course entitled “Issues in Psychological and Neurological Science: Gender, Marriage, and Family” as an adjunct professor at the John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family in Washington, DC. Dr. Sodergren’s doctoral dissertation, was entitled “Attachment and Morality: A Catholic Perspective.”
